The exhibition showcased various models of India’s prominent space missions including PSLV, GSLV, and Human Rated Launch Vehicles, which captured the curiosity and imagination of students. LPSC scientists interacted with the participants and explained the underlying concepts of propulsion systems, launch vehicle technology, and upcoming space missions. The event provided students with valuable insights into the nation’s advancements in space science and engineering.

The program commenced with a prayer, followed by the Welcome Address delivered by Dr. Avinash G. S., Head of the Department of Mechanical Engineering. The Presidential Address was given by Dr. T. Mathavaraj Ravikumar, Principal, VAST TC. The event was formally inaugurated by Dr. Rijo Jacob Thomas, Dean of Strategic Planning, TKM College of Engineering.

The dignitaries who felicitated the gathering included:

Brig. K. S. Shaji – Director, VAST TC

Dr. C. Brijilal Ruben – HoD, CSE

Dr. T. Pravin Rose – HoD, AS

Dr. K. Sargunan – HoD, CE

The session concluded with the Vote of Thanks proposed by the Secretary of ARMS. The exhibition and technical talk not only offered an in-depth understanding of space research but also instilled a sense of pride and motivation among the students. By witnessing the innovations and achievements of ISRO, students were encouraged to dream bigger and aspire to contribute to India’s future in space exploration. The successful conduct of ARMS 2025 marked yet another milestone for the Department of Mechanical Engineering, reaffirming its commitment to fostering curiosity, innovation, and technical excellence among students.

Industrial Visit to Mattupetty Dam Hydropower Project

The students of S3 Mechanical Engineering from Vidya Academy of Science and Technology Technical Campus (VASTTC), Kilimanoor, undertook an industrial visit to the Mattupetty Dam Hydropower Project near Munnar.

The visit was organized as part of their curriculum to provide practical exposure to power generation systems. Students had the opportunity to observe the working of turbines, alternators, and control mechanisms involved in hydroelectric power generation. The technical team at the site explained various aspects such as the structure of the gravity dam, water management for irrigation, and the role of renewable energy in sustainable development.

The visit proved highly beneficial, offering students a deeper understanding of how theoretical concepts in mechanical engineering are applied in real-world operations. It also enhanced their awareness of renewable energy and resource management.

Faculty members accompanying the students expressed gratitude to the Kerala State Electricity Board and the project staff for their support and detailed guidance during the session.

Industrial Visit to Kodaikanal Solar Observatory (KSO)

An industrial visit to the Kodaikanal Solar Observatory (KSO) was organized for 23 students from the S3 ECE batch of Vidya Academy of Science and Technology Technical Campus, Kilimanoor. This visit was more than a general tour; it was a targeted learning experience designed to bridge theoretical concepts from our ECE curriculum with their practical applications in the fields of astronomy and space science. The primary goal was to provide a deeper understanding of the electronic systems, signal processing, and communication technologies that underpin modern solar research.

Industrial Visit to i - SPACE ARCHITECTS AND CONSTRUCTION

On 16th August 2025, the Department of Civil Engineering, Vidya Academy of Science and Technology, Technical Campus, Kilimanoor, organized a One-day industrial visit to i - SPACE ARCHITECTS AND CONSTRUCTION, Kodaikanal. A total of 28 students and staff members participated in the program. The visit was aimed at understanding the basic industry practices by giving students practical exposure to construction processes, industry standards, and emerging technologies.

Students found the hands-on experience motivating and gained a better understanding of software industry operations and career opportunities. Faculty members appreciated the interaction with industry professionals, recognized its value for future academic-industry collaborations.
